

Dear Colleague,

You are invited to attend Oceania CACS 2011 – the annual ISACA Oceania conference hosted by the Queensland Chapter, 18 - 23 September 2011, Brisbane, Australia. The conference theme is Navigating a Steady Course in Uncharted Waters – protect, govern, empower.

CACS 2011 is an international event encompassing all things IS Governance, Assurance, and Security – innovation, leading practice, new capabilities and trends. Attendees can look forward to three days of exposure to innovative thinking, problem-solving and networking opportunities.

Keynote speakers include: Bruce Turner – Chief Internal Auditor, Australian Taxation Office; Glenn Poole – Auditor-General, Queensland; Tony Hayes – Associate Director-General, Department of Communities.

Conference highlights include: 50+ presenters in three separate streams; two discussion panels each of three CEOs and three CIOs respectively.

The conference includes a welcome cocktail party with amazing views of Brisbane's skyline, a twilight cruise on Brisbane River and, the highlight, the Conference gala dinner with lots of entertainment and dance. We hope to see you there.
